Fifty Winners of Contest Will See Wonders of Intermountain Country.

GREAT OPPORTUNITY

Opportunity to see virtually all the wonder spots of the great intermountain country is offered to the 50 prize winners in the subscription contest of the EVENING LEDGER and the PUBLIC LEDGER. This number of men and women will be sent free of charge to the Panama-Pacific Exposition at San Francisco and the Panama-California Exposition at San Diego, Cal.

McCracken, 2046 South Norwood street. Watch for future announcements.

The 2007th regular stated convention of Continental Lodge was held February 10, at 814 North Bread street, with C. C. Marten Green presiding with full quota of officers and District Deputy Grand Chancelor Joseph A. Lord present. The Booster Committee has shown what can be done by having four applicants for the rank of knighthood and two reinstatements. The aim of the Booster is to have 50 new members before the term ends. After the seasion the members proceeded in a body to celebrate the anniversary of the lodge with a "Dutch Lunch." The music was furnished by the mandelin club of Scuthwark Lodge, which was hugely enjoyed. The satisfying results of this convention reflect credit on the working spirits of this lodge. On February 24 the jank of esquire will be given by the degree team, and on March 10 the rank of knight will be given in long form. A welcome is extended to all members to visit this booming lodge.

At the last meeting of Banneret Lodge two will be given in long form. A welcome is extended to all members to visit this booming lodge.

At the last meeting of Banneret Lodge two pages were proved as esquires, and after the convention of the lodge all present retired to a banquet given by the retiring chancellor commander, William Klesel. Brother Jos.
Scheetz acted as toastmaster and made an address on the good of the order. Brother Kiesel was presented with a past commander fewel, the customary gift of the lodge to the retiring chanceslor commander, and fittingly acknowledged the honors. Grand Representative Frank Burgess made an address on "The Advantage of Being a Pythian." Brother
Drumel made an address on "Co-operation."
Brother Kennedy added his usually humorous remarks to the entertainment of the evening.
Music was turnished by Brother Dellon's string quartet, accompanied by Brother Dellon's string quartet, accompanied by Brother Miller, at the plane. Brother Dr. J. P. Frantz taiked on "Cessons Taught by Pythianiam." Singing of popular songs and cheers for Brother Klesel closed a good time. The tour will be made in July shortly after the contest ends, which is to be June 30. The 50 persons standing highest in the number of points for subscriptions to either or both newspapers obtained will not have to pay a cent for the trip nor for hotel expenses. Even the bother of making arrangements for the trip will be taken off their hands by representa-tives of the EVENING LEDGER and PUR-

It will be possible for the tourists to make stop-overs at nearly all the famous places in the West visited by tourists, such as the Grand Canon of Arizona, Yellowstone Park and other places. Marlin Council will hold a benquet and smoker in their room, 2006 Stella avenue, last Monday evening, which was attended by many friends of the council's members and invited guests of the council of Andrews I willson, Bro. Charles Thomps H. Wallers, State Secretary Charles H. Hall and Past Councilors John O. Wilson and Andrew J. Wilson. Bro. Charles Thompson, Jr., entertained with recttations. The success of the occasion was due to the efforts of Recording Secretary Walter E. Hanzel and his efficient committee and was the opening gun for a big membership campaign, launched with 18 applications.

The next visitation of the Past Councilors' and Willing Workers' Association will be at Benjamin Frankin Council, 278 South 62d street. Friday evening, February 26.

Blakely Council, of Newport, recently adopted the State premium plan and reports 15 new members and more on the way.

Crystal Council, of Janette, recently initiated a class of 20 candidates.

POLICE RAID PARTY Beer kettles, bottles and dishes were showered on the heads of Sergeant Morti-mer and a detail of policemen from the 19th and Oxford streets station, when they were called to interrupt a party at 2111 Columbia avenue, according to testi-mony today before Magistrate Morris, who held two men in connection with the disturbance. Harry Bennett got 30 days and Patrick Corcoran six months. Three children, ranging in ages from 215 to 5 years, were frightened into hysterics when the police descended on the house, but Mrs. Bennett, wife of one of the men sent to jail, promised to take care of them in the future and Magistrate Morris al-lowed her her freedom.

No Aerial Stunts for Boy Charles W. Sheldon, an acrobat, who was before Magistrate Renshaw at City Hall yesterday charged with violating the law by permitting his 8-year-old son to do an acrobatic stunt on the stage and was placed under a $300 bond to obey the law, said today that he fully intends to keep within the law, and that the act to which the court took exception, which consists of Sheldon lifting the boy from a reclining position on t.e floor to a po-sition over his head, will be eliminated from the act. The case against Sheldon yesterday did not involve taking the boy from the stage. He will be permitted to take part in the act, but will not be allowed to do acrobatic stunts.

Camp 361 s visitation night at 4026 Lancauser avenue by the Sixth District Committee, proved to be one of the most successful events in the history of the order in the Sixth District. Over 200 persons crowded the rooms to hear the L.-m. Harry S. Stone sreek on the subject of immigration. The Rev. H. F. Hale spoke on patriotism and religion, while Dr. Philip H. Moore's subject was the Bible in our public schools. It was the first night that ladies were present. As a result the committee passed a resolution that all future visitation meetings shall be open to the general rooms. The membership of the order. Arrangements were also made by which the suirit of fraternal fellowship will be expanded between the 13th and Sixth Districts through a series of bowling, quot and other contests.

Camp 208 had a big meeting on Tuesday evening. A spirited address was delivered by Louis A. Berry on "Immigration and the Most Expedient Legislation." in which he advocated the adoption of stringent laws which would restrict and not prohibit immigration. He said that immigration is of itself a blessing, but when unbounded and left too free it is harmful and tends to the deterioration of American labor. American industries and American communities. Clyde A. Mauger presided, and among those present were William J. Bates, Samuel C. Wells, Ex. S. P.; Louis J. Berry, members of the Sixth District committee, with Chairman Walker, Dr. A. Alex, Howell, Harry Meotile, Edgar B. Wallen, president Camp 205; Charles Weand, assistant State secretary, and many others.

Foresters of America

The Past Chief Rangers' Association held a special meeting to elect a secretary to fill the vacancy by the death of J. J. DeWolf. About 150 members voted, and Joseph Foley was elected by a large majority. F. K. Greene was elected to the position of senior conductor, and J. Mauer was elected trustee. Court Schnykkili was honored by a visit from two members of Court Lehigh, Brother Fish, financial secretary, and Brother Carey. The visitors spoke of the good work which has been done by the courts in the northeast, and invited Court Schuyikili to pay them a visit. The visitation committee gave the assurance that a visit would be made in the near future. The number of propositions coming in every week shows that the members are keeping their New Year pledge. Court Pennsylvania held one of its best sessions, and welcomed some of its oldest members at the last meeting, among them Brother Gillman and Brother Hart, the latter stating that his employment had permitted him to attend only two meetings in the last IT years.

bers at the last meeting, among them Brother Gillman and Brother Hart, the latter stating that his employment had permitted him to attend only two meetings in the last 17 years. Past Chief Ranger Gillman suggested that the court assess its members on account of the death of the brother whom the court aided during illness. Financial Secretary John P. McCall contended that the court had never benefited by an assessment, and that it was nite to meet its obligations without imposing burdens upon its members.
